DEFINITIONS

- "Short-Term Rental" means a Guest Home, Guest Suite, Guest Rooms, or part thereof in a residential zone wherein accommodation is offered for rent, or rented, to the travelling public on a temporary basis (31 days or less), and is subject to section 1.1.10 of Schedule "A" of the Zoning Bylaw, 3199, 2013.
- "Guest Room" means a habitable room used for Short-Term Rental including, but not limited to, a bedroom, living room, or dining room advertised for the exclusive use by the Short-Term Rental guests, and that does not contain cooking facilities. If you will be advertising a bedroom with a living/dining room, for example, you need to apply for a Two Room Licence. Except for in the R6 zone, no more than two of the rooms may be bedrooms.
- "Guest Suite" means a Laneway House or Secondary Suite used for Short-Term Rental. A Guest Suite must be a legal, conforming secondary suite. Laneway houses built since June 2018 are not eligible.
- "Guest Home" means a Single-Detached Residential dwelling unit, a unit in a Duplex Residential dwelling or a dwelling unit in a Multi-Unit Residential dwelling where such dwelling is used in its entirety as one dwelling for Short-Term Rental. If it is the sole dwelling unit on the property, may not be advertised as available for rent for more than 182 days per year.

MANDATORY INFORMATION INCLUDES:

- Proof of principal residence of the property – If you have owned the home for longer than one year, this must be the provincial homeowners grant. In other cases, it may include documentation showing you received provincial or federal government benefits, or income tax documentation or receipts. A driver's licence or utility bill alone is not enough. In some cases, proof of principal residence is not required for a four-month licence.

TAX

Short-Term Rentals are required to remit the Provincial Sales Tax (PST) and the 2% MRDT (commonly known as the tourism tax). Please refer to the provincial government for more information.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

In the case of change of ownership of the property or change of location of the business, the business licence becomes invalid effective immediately (unless you are one of the grandfathered business licences).
